

WALKING THE MOURNER'S PATH

Upcoming Facilitator Training School

The Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd, Maitland FL

September 10-12, 2015

TM

Walking the Mourner's Path is a unique grief program. It is Christ centered and used in churches across the country.

Mourner's "transform their lives from grief into joyful living" in eight spiritually directed small group workshops.

Program participants learn:

- While their pain is unique, they are not alone on the journey.
- That healing can occur by allowing Christ to be a part of their pain.
- Tools to help them heal and move forward in their life.

Facilitator School is where those called to ministry learn:

- About the program of Walking the Mourner's Path
- How to integrate the program with existing ministries in their church
- Effective Facilitating and Listening Skills
- An understanding of how culture, faith, and family shape our response to death and grief
- The experience of each of the Eight Workshops

"God blessed me when God led me to this program."
