Workshop on Understanding Grief – Saturday, July 16th

The Institute for Christian Studies is offering a one-day workshop on understanding grief and working with people in grief. Archdeacon Kristi Alday will lead the workshop. Kristi, who has a Master's degree in Counseling, is the former COO of Walking the Mourner's Path a national and international grief ministry. Over a number of years, she travelled, on behalf of the ministry, to numerous places teaching grief and how to facilitate grief support groups, including New York after 9/11.

This workshop is open to any person – clergy or laity – who is interested and there is no fee. The workshop will be held at the Cathedral Church of St. Luke, 130 N. Magnolia Avenue, Orlando, on Saturday, July 16th from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Please bring a lunch.

In order that adequate preparations may be made, please reserve a place with Archdeacon Alday at kalday@cfdiocese.org

“At the Altar & Beyond” Retreat for Retired Clergy - July 19th & 20th at Canterbury

All retired clergy are invited for two days of fellowship, refreshment and renewal at Canterbury Retreat & Conference Center, 1601 N. Alafaya Trail, Oviedo, Florida, 32765, Tuesday, July 19th and Wednesday, July 20th. Dr. Carla Waterman, educator and founding member the Robert E. Webber Institute for Worship Studies, will be the retreat leader. Check-in begins Tuesday at 2 p.m. Bishop Brewer will celebrate and preach the opening Eucharist at 4 p.m. The gathering concludes on Wednesday with closing worship at 3 p.m. A FLYER with costs, schedule and registration information is included in this issue.

Conference on Ministry – August 27th

The Commission on Ministry is hosting the Annual Conference on Ministry at Church of the Messiah, 241 N. Main Street in Winter Garden on Saturday, August 27th 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Please consider with care those you might encourage to attend this conference. Who in your congregation has demonstrated leadership gifts and has a passion for leading and equipping God's people? Who has the heart of a deacon? Who is struggling with a call to ministry and still unsure what form that ministry might take? Who is already clear about a call to ordination and who are you prepared to support in continuing discernment? The Conference on Ministry is for them! AND it is required for all aspirants to ordained ministry.

Focus on MISSION at the 48th Annual Diocesan Convention

Our Diocesan Convention, January 27 & 28, 2017, will focus on Mission. We need your help! If your church is sending a team on a mission trip to another country this year, we would like you to share highlights of their trip with us. We will include pictures, testimony and video clips in the video which Bishop Brewer has commissioned – attesting to the transformations that occur during overseas mission trips among the people who go and the people they serve.

Please help us get the best, most compelling pieces you have. We will want no more than 8 pictures, no more than 500 words of testimony, and no more than 3 total minutes of video.

Please use common formats for the pictures and video footage so they may be easily adapted.

We do need quality, high-resolution images - iPhones etc. all have high enough resolution.

Please send your submissions to Erick Perez at eperez@cfdiocese.org If you have questions, please contact Canon Tim Nunez directly at 407-423-3567 ext. 307 or tnunez@cfdiocese.org

The Emmaus School of Biblical Studies 2016-2017 school year!

The Emmaus School of Biblical Studies is a 10-month discipleship school held on the campus of Canterbury Retreat & Conference Center in Oviedo, FL. The school takes students on a journey through the content of the entire Bible utilizing the tools of Inductive Bible Study to thoroughly observe the scriptures, interpret them within the historical and literary context, and apply the truths of Scripture to their real, everyday lives.

There are three ways to engage in this journey during the upcoming 2016-2017 school year:

- 1) On-Campus Residential (cost: $8950): Live with a community of disciples on the campus of Canterbury. This cost includes housing, utilities, tuition and meals for the entire 10-months.
- 2) Commuter Student (cost: $4500): For local students with off-campus housing, commuter students participate in the full Emmaus school including the provision of one-meal Monday-Friday.
- 3) Audit Program (cost: $25/book OR $450 for a full-year pass): A great way for people in the area who desire to join the Emmaus classroom and grow in their understanding of the Scriptures.

On-Campus & Commuter students are encouraged to apply for the Youth Ministry Internship opportunity which provides them with practical ministry experience in a local parish as well as a $1000 tuition discount.

For more information on these opportunities visit: emmausbibleministries.org

Dr. Carla

Carla teaches and mentors hungry people in classic Christian spirituality “near to the altar, close to the ground” a journey of faith, hope and love.

Dr. Waterman holds a Ph.D. from Cornell University and began her teaching ministry on the faculty at Wheaton College. She was a founding faculty member of the Robert E. Webber Institute for Worship Studies.

She is a noted author of numerous articles and her book Songs of Assent, on Mary’s receptivity to God is a deep and profound read. She is a gifted presenter, teacher and draws people into the deep water of faith and passion for God.

Canterbury is a sacred space offering a ministry of hospitality to all who come on the campus.

Among its amenities are: cozy lodging rooms; comfortable and “smart” meeting rooms; tremendous tasty, and healthy meals; the centerpiece of the campus is beautiful Lake Gem; a true sense of sanctuary in a busy and hectic world.

At the Altar and Beyond

*A Gathering of Retired Clergy in the Diocese of Central Florida
July 19-20, 2016*

“Happy are those whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways to Zion.”

You are invited to gather for two days of fellowship, refreshment and renewal as we explore spiritual challenges and practical opportunities for retired clergy in our diocese.

Throughout the retreat Dr. Carla Waterman will guide us in an extended meditation of Psalm 84, following the Sons of Korah through the changes and chances of ministry life. We will pray, worship, talk, laugh and enjoy the warm hospitality for which Canterbury is famous.

Come! Connect with others in your diocesan family. Be renewed in your vocation during this retirement season. Enjoy the beauty, fellowship, food and rest at Canterbury Retreat and Conference Center.
