

Mr. Milton Malespin
Candidate for Diocesan Board
Lay Order

My name is Milton Malespin, and I was born on September 13, 1961, in New York, USA. My parents are Mario & Bienvenida Malespin, both born in the Dominican Republic and Episcopalians since 1960. In 1972, we moved to Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. I completed High School in the prestigious Catholic Private school of “Colegio Loyola.” I attended college at “Universidad Nacional Pedro Henriquez Ureña,” where I graduated in 1984 with a degree in Business Administration.

I married my wife Francisca in 1984, our oldest son (Milton Emilio) was born in February 1987 in Santo Domingo. We moved to Kissimmee, Florida, in 1988. Michael (September 1990) and Christian (September 1993), our two youngest sons, were born in Orlando, Florida. Since February 1989, I’ve been working at Walt Disney World in various roles, and for the last 21 years, I’ve been in the Workforce Management department, specifically in the scheduling department.

I’ve been an Episcopalian all my life, as my parents took me to church every Sunday. My Mom was a Sunday School teacher in the Dominican Republic and Orlando, Florida. My Dad served both at his church and the Diocese of the Dominican Republic, from Senior Warden to a member of most of the boards of that Diocese. We are Leaders in the Cursillo movement here in Orlando.

I’m currently the Senior Warden of my church at Jesus de Nazaret. I’m also the Chair of the Hispanic Cursillo Commission and the Co-chair of the Hispanic Commission.
