

Erick Perez is a lay leader at Christ the King Episcopal Church in Orlando and previously served as a vestry member and Clerk of the Vestry at the Church of the Incarnation in Oviedo, a leader in the Episcopal Church at UCF (young adult and college ministry). For nearly a decade, he supported our diocese and bishops at the diocesan office serving in various roles.

He has served on multiple discernment committees and takes the vocation of prayer, discernment, and listening to the Holy Spirit seriously. He has been elected to diocesan-wide office twice as a lay deputy to General Convention. Church-wide, Erick has represented the Diocese at Province IV, served on the Liturgy, Music, and Prayerbook Committee, and was also the assistant secretary of the Rules and Order Committee for the General Convention. He also served as a leader in the Deputies of Color.

He graduated from Rollins College and is also a trained EMT. He has experience in leading young adult groups and mentoring young adults. He has an extensive experience in the hospitality industry.

Erick was part of and supported a Hispanic church plant in Oviedo and has extensive experience in Hispanic ministry in Central Florida. He previously served as secretary of the Hispanic Commission.

Erick is married to Kat, and they are the proud parents to Xavi. Erick has been an active lay leader at various churches. He is currently at Christ the King Episcopal Church, supporting their hunger relief efforts, Hispanic ministry, and worship.