

Heather Rodriguez is a lay leader at Christ the King Episcopal Church in Orlando, where she serves in music ministry. She works as the Parish Administrator at St. Matthews Episcopal Church and has served the staff of local Episcopal Churches for over 15 years.

Heather is a Daughter of the King and believes that a life of service in the Church has its foundations in Jesus first and requires prayer and intercession. She is an outgoing member of the Standing Committee and has previously served as a member of the Diocesan Board.

She has served as an alternate deputy and a deputy at the past two General Conventions. She was asked to serve on the Dispatch of Business Committee for the past General Convention and was assigned to the Program Budget and Finance Committee as the lay liaison.

Heather also authored and co-authored multiple resolutions that have passed at the 2022 General Convention. She has supported equity for Province IX deputies and General Convention work upholding the ministry of the Laity.

Heather has been in the Episcopal Church for over 16 years and was part of the initial team that planted the Church of the Incarnation in Oviedo. There she served as a musician and later Minister of Music for a decade. She has been a musician at Incarnation, Good Shepherd (Maitland), St. Matthew's (Orlando), and now Christ the King (Orlando). Before that, she grew up Methodist before meeting her husband and joining the Episcopal Church in 2006.
