

AmaTiombi Brown-Fenton
Candidate for election to the Diocesan Board,
Lay Order

AmaTiombi (Ama) Brown-Fenton is a cradle Episcopalian, baptized and confirmed at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Mount Airy Maryland. In the diocese of Maryland, she has served in roles that have included, Christian Formation, Events Coordinator for Diocesan Convention, racial reconciliation, and as an advocate for persons with disabilities. In addition, Ama has been president of the local PTA and avid supporter and participant in the arts, particularly community musical theatre.

Ama is currently a member of the Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist, Orlando. At St. John's she participates in outreach projects, assists with Sunday School, and is a member of the choir.

Ama is a member of the Canon Nelson Pinder Union of Black Episcopalians (UBE) Chapter of Central Florida. She also serves as the Tech Specialist for General Convention's Deputies of Color.

Ama's business acumen and experience in human resources, management, and supervision provides her with the skills and tools for effective leadership and decision-making.

In addition to her family, and the theatre, scuba diving rounds out her passions.
