THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Prior to licensure in the Diocese of Central Florida we ask that you respond to the following 3 questions. We hope that you will consider this to be one way that we can get to know each other better through theological reflection. Please limit your response to all 3 questions to one page.

1. In your ordination as deacon and priest you promised: “I solemnly declare that I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation.” What does this promise mean to you and how does it inform your preaching and pastoral care?

2. In your baptism you promised to “accept Jesus Christ as your savior”, to “trust in his grace and love” and to “follow and obey him as your Lord.” At your ordination you promised: “I do solemnly engage to conform to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Episcopal Church.” How do you understand these two promises in relationship to one another?

3. In your ordination as deacon and priest you committed yourself to “proclaim by word and deed the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to fashion your life in accordance with its precepts.” How does such a commitment inform your leadership?

(Please acknowledge that you subscribe to this Canon by signing page 7)

Section 1.

The Rector, or Vicar of all congregations, has charge under the Constitution and Canons of all things affecting the spiritual interests of their Congregations, subject only to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, and at all times shall be entitled to the use and control of the church and all Parish buildings with the appurtenances and furniture thereof; at all times shall be entitled to access to the church, to open the same for public worship, for catechetical or other religious instruction, marriages, baptisms, burials, and all other offices authorized by the church and shall have full charge of all services in the church and, except as provided in Canon XXV, spiritual direction and full charge and control of all church schools, Parish schools, and all other associations, including separate corporations, related to or connected with the Parish.

Section 2.

It is the duty of the Rector or Vicar, who shall have full charge of all services in the church subject only and at all times to the Ecclesiastical Authority, to give directions concerning the worship of the Church, together with all that pertains thereto, and appoint fit persons to perform such duties relative to the service of the church as may properly be done by lay persons.

All members of the clergy of this Diocese may allow to take place in their cures, officiate at, bless or participate in, only those unions prescribed by Holy Scripture: the wedding of one woman and one man. Said clergy are forbidden to allow to take place in their cures, officiate at, bless or participate in any other unions, as proscribed by Holy Scripture.

Section 11.

The staff and employees of a congregation shall serve under the direction and control and at the pleasure of the Rector or Vicar. Nothing in this section, however, shall prevent the Rector or Vicar from delegating to an employee, the Vestry or committee thereof, all or part of the authority to employ, direct, control, evaluate, discharge, or otherwise control the staff or employees.

I, the undersigned, do hereby acknowledge that I have read and understand Canon XVI of the Diocese of Central Florida, that I subscribe to the standards set forth in it, and will endeavor to pattern my life accordingly.
