

Mr. Steve Hawn
Diocesan Board
Lay Order

Steve Hawn is a dedicated leader with a lifelong commitment to his faith and a deep passion for serving others.

A devoted husband and father of three, Steve has balanced his professional career with his commitment to his family and faith community. He began his career at the University of Michigan Medical Center, where he specialized in clinical microbiology within the Department of Pathology. He has held various leadership roles in sales and marketing for international healthcare corporations, bringing invaluable insights and expertise to the industry. His most recent role as vice president of business development for a national medical software company highlights his strategic vision and proficiency in business growth.

An Episcopalian since childhood, Steve and his wife, Cindy, have been active members of the Church of the Ascension for many years. His dedication to service extends to his role as the director of outreach, where he spearheads initiatives aimed at supporting the local community and fostering spiritual growth among parishioners. Known for his meticulous attention to detail and unwavering commitment to Christ, Steve combines his business acumen with his heartfelt desire to make a difference. His strategic thinking and compassionate leadership continue to inspire those around him, making him a pillar of both his professional and faith communities.
