

The Rev. Kay Mueller
Standing Committee
Clerical Order

The Reverend Kay Mueller is rector at Church of Our Saviour, Okeechobee, a member of the ICS faculty, and a member of the Commission on Ministry. She has a B.S. in Management and a Master's in Ministry degree from Nashotah House Theological Seminary. Her previous diocesan service includes a three-year term on the Diocesan Board of Directors and Executive Committee and serving as a clergy-alternate deputy at both the 80th and 81st General Conventions of The Episcopal Church.

Kay's secular experience includes a 25-year career in executive management in the heavy-duty trucking industry with Peterbilt, a Fortune 500 company. She is also serving her third term as president of the Board of Directors for the Homeowners Association of Beach Villas on South Hutchinson Island.

She was ordained to the diaconate in Central Florida in 2017, and subsequently responded to a call to the priesthood and was ordained a priest in 2022. Kay's spiritual background, formation, and service, along with numerous years of management experience and strategic planning, are assets she would bring to the Standing Committee.
